LOCAL ITEMS.

Have had a fine season for curing hay.

The Barrett case is making matters lively.

See other Local matter on Editorial page.

We regret to hear that Prof.
Hudson, of Toone, is in ill health.

Considerable grain and grass seed being sowed in the county this fall.

Extra session of the Senate met Monday Senator, Bayard elected president pro tem.

Elder Witt, held interesting quarterly meeting services in Bolivar last Sunday.

Some papers report the cotton worm has attacked cotton fields in West Tennessee.

The cotton crop is nearly all picked in the county; not much left in the fields.

Drummers and peddlers dread clerk Dorion's watchful eye and excellent judgment of revenue law.

Please call and pay your subscription dues. The amount may be small, but it is needed.

The Bolivar Public School is succeeding admirably under the management of Rev. Mr. Todd.

Rev D C Wells was in town on Tuesday. Wonder, did he come to carry the Conference to the Junction.

Bolivar and Salsbury have been investing in futures in New Orleans, and up to date, about $50,- 000.—[Appeal.]

We regret to learn that Frank Bray, of Whiteville, broke his arm last week. His mother, Mrs.
Sheets, is attending him.

Memphis Cotton Exchange reports that in Tennessee, North Mississippi North Arkansas the cotton crop averages 51 per cent less than 1880.

Rev. Richard Hill will hold protracted religious services at Enon church, near Middleburg, commencing Saturday night, the 15th.

Teacher's Institute at Toons on tomorrow and Saturday. The public, and teachers especially, are cordially invited to attend.

Secretary of State, Nunn, expresses himself of the opinion that the people of West Tennessee, with economy, will make corn enough to do them another year.

The people of the county are anxious that the true inwardness of the Barrett-bribery case be held up, to light. The truth should be known.

The speculators and spianers are moving greatly to depress the price of cotton. As soon as it is realized that the crop is short, then you will see a healthy advance.

The Comptroller's semi-annual apportionment of school money gives Hardeman $1,063.84, payable Jan. 1st, 1882. This is on a basis of 7690 scholastic population.

The members of Bolivar Lodge, No. 499 K. of H. are requested to attend the Lodge meeting to-morrow night (Friday, Oct. 14th.) Business to be transacted of importance.

Many persons who went West in search of a better country are returning to Tennessee. Wagons bearing their families and effects lack home are seen in many parts of the State.

Wheeler & Wilson's improved new No. 7 Swinebread has mammoth sweet potatoes for free distribution among his friends. They average three and three-quarters pounds. Call and get some. He will feel slighted, if you fail to come.

The docket of the circuit Court at Nashville, contains fifty-five petitions for divorce, all set for hearing the present term. In thirty-eight of the cases, the wives are the petitioners. What a record of conjugal infelicity those petitions must embody.

Jonathan Joyner, of Pocahontas, called, and says that he and Parron Crook, and James Lillard, will be on hand at Conference to put in some good work. The three are pledged to marry by Christmas and they are busy scouting all over the country. They say they are very choice, but game is plentiful.

The Nashville Banner says:
"The farmers in West Tennessee are in much better circumstances and spirits than they were a few weeks since. They report the corn crop as turning out better than they expected. Large amounts of wheat are being sown as well as other small grains. The grass in the pastures has become green and tender, and all kinds of stock will have a fine time until frost."

There has been so much whisky drinking on the Sabbath in Bolivar that the Aldermen have ordered the sergent to see that the saloons and drug stores are closed in front and rear on that day. The negro drinking and gambling hole back of the McNeal block is a public nuisance. The people are getting restive under such Sunday desecration and may have to resort to the remedy of the revocation of the town charter and enforcement of the four mile law.

DISTRICT NO. 3.

October, 6.

Mr. Editor:—A singular marriage took place here a few days ago. Geo.
Hoback, aged sixteen years, married Rebecca Williams, aged twenty-seven years. The mother of the boy and the brother of the lady opposed the match and then a runaway escape was planned. Late at night Hoback, with some comrades, met Miss Williams at the residence of J. A. Link, and fled through the back door, and over gulches and fences they roamed, until they met the party with the horses. They mounted and off they started. But the aforesaid brother and mother started in pursuit. The old lady, "bouncet-less and stockingless, and astride of a mule, pursued in hot haste, but the loving pair reached Esq. Eubank's and were duly made boy and wife.

W. T. McCarley, Photographer, Brownsville, Tenn., will open a gal-ery in this place, the 25th of October and will remain one month for the purpose of making pictures, and will be prepared to do all kinds of work.
Those wanting good pictures made, will have a good opportunity of doing so. 10-13-2t

SALEM CITY, ARK. }
Oct. 4, '81. }

Mr. Editor:—As the Mumps keep me in the house, I write to kill time.
We have had several good rains.
Stock and turnips rejoice. Times are hard and dull. J. W. Justice and G. T. Ferrell made a visit to the Red man's country the other day to attend the Masonic burial of a Choctaw brother Mason. The white man is driving the red man out. The procession was large, but only one full-blooded Indian was seen. The missionaries are having a fine revival of religion here, fifty-eight have joined the church. Salem Church has two hundred members. I hope my girl will not expect me to come after her this Christmas, as the drought has been very severe in Arkansas.

W. F. Clift.

MEMPHIS, TENN. }
Oct. 5th 1881. }

Mr. Editor:—The colored people, as well as the whites, value your valuable paper. As a subscriber, and representing my race, I can say that you are a friend of the colored man, and have done much to advance his interests. I am concerned to know why the people don't take more interest in papers and books. Only thorough education and character can elevate them in the scale of being. It is high time that they should appreciate education and habits of economy.
If they, as laborers, would only use the advantages they have, and save their money they would soon own each a home, and become independent. But thriftless, shiftless habits and whisky drinking are the worst enemies of the colored people. We can enhance in value our citizenship by mental training and correct deportment.

I do cheerfully commend your paper to my colored friends in the Bolivar, and vicinity.

A colored M'aphian.

DIED.

ALLEN.—On the 29th of Sept. of flux, Dr. W. M. Allen, age 56 years.
The Doctor was a faithful physician, a good citizen and his death is universally regretted.

SHILOHVILLE, TENN. }
Oct. 6th '81. }

Mr. Editor:—The Lord has done great things for us on Hanburg circuit, whereof we are glad. I have held eight protracted meetings, closing out last Monday night at our new church, Shiloh, such a meeting I have never witnessed. The house, 56 x 50, from first to last, was crowded. All seemed to love and reverence the place, the place where sleeping many brave men of the South. God blessed the preaching, and the Holy Ghost fell in power upon the people, and such shoutings I never heard.
Ah, sir, it was good to be there, God was in the place. Twenty-one were born again, twenty-seven added to the church, and sixteen children were baptized. Since July we have had 60 conversions, 73 accessions and have baptized 67 infants. This is my second year on this work, in which time 124 have been baptized, 153 received into the church, and 106 infants baptized. Glory and honor to our God for his goodness to the children of men. Our memorial church is nearly finished,—a good house.

HICKORY VALLEY, }
Oct. 9th 1881. }

Mr. Editor:—The farmers are busily engaged in harvesting their crops, though they are quite short. Blessings on their brave noble hearts! Our little town is quite lively. The boys, (or, for fear I shall offend them, young men,) are looking quite happy indeed, the reason why, I cannot tell, but suffice to say, that many business trips to your are anticipated. I had the pleasure of attending the Quarterly Meeting at Brick Church last Thursday and Friday. Bro. Witt preached with power.
